

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Kentucky Conference on the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning
May 23-24, 2004

Student Success for Kentucky's Future

Marriott Griffin Gate use 1-859-231-5100 for reservations. Ask for Faculty Development conference, group rate of $65, Lexington, KY

Proposals Due: March 19, 2004

The conference will focus on “Student Success” and address the needs of Kentucky’s diverse student population to increase graduation rates and enhance Kentucky’s economy and culture. Proposals should offer innovative educational experiences for diverse student populations, including students with disabilities and adult/part-time learners. Initiatives regarding successful incorporation of technologies or service learning into classroom experiences are also encouraged. Finally, programs that enhance student advising and transfer (particularly from 2-year to 4-year colleges) are sought. We encourage presentations that address one or more of the key indicators of progress toward postsecondary reform. For more information on these indicators go to <http://www.cpe.state.ky.us/KeyInd>

POSSIBLE SESSION TOPICS

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| *Promoting the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning | *Effective Student Advising  |
| *Enhancing Student Recruitment                      | *Course and Program Redesign and Collaboration to increase Capacity and Learning |
| *American Disability Act Applications               | *Improving Student Retention   |
| *Improving Teaching & Learning with Technology      | *Service-learning and Community Involvement                                      |

SESSION LENGTHS

60 or 90 minutes (Note: Depending on the number and nature of the proposals accepted, presenters may be asked to share time slots with another presenter.) Each session should reserve at least one-third of the time for discussion.

Poster/demonstration sessions also will be scheduled.

Each presentation room will be equipped with a laptop and LCD projector. All laptops are equipped with Office 2000 programs and Adobe Acrobat. Internet access is available on a limited basis. Presenters are responsible for their own handouts/copying. We expect approximately 300 participants for the conference. Copying will not be available on site. A "Resource Table" will be set up if you have copies of your presentation/materials that you would like to make available to all conference participants.

TENTATIVE SESSION SCHEDULE– E.S.T.

May 23rd (Sunday):

1:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.: Presentations and Panels

6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.: Reception and Keynote dinner

May 24th (Monday)

9:00 a.m. – noon: General and concurrent presentations

Noon – 2:00 p.m.: Keynote Luncheon

2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.: Presentations and Closing session

This annual conference sponsored by the Council on Postsecondary Education offers an excellent forum for college faculty and administrators to discuss topics related to teaching and learning. Past conference topics included enhancing and enriching learning and effective use of technology-based instruction.

Presentations, panel discussions and poster sessions /demonstrations will provide delegates and visitors the opportunity to discuss the scholarship of teaching and to share innovative techniques and technologies.

SUBMISSION OF PROPOSALS:

Presentation proposals must be submitted online. Acceptance notification by E-mail.

Online submission form at: <http://atech2.wku.edu/skuhlens/cpe>

Comments or questions about the conference should be directed to Sally Kuhlenschmidt (sally.kuhlenschmidt@wku.edu) or Larry Albert (l.albert@morehead-st.edu)

---

The Kentucky Journal of Excellence in College Teaching and Learning
Council on Postsecondary Education | CPE Faculty Workgroup

---

Contact the webmaster with comments or questions about this site by following the directions at this page (which will open in a new window.)